DEFINITION:

Resident:
One whose residence is in the state of Alabama. Residence means the single location at which a person has resided for a minimum of 12 consecutive months with the intent of remaining there indefinitely as evidenced by more substantial connections with that place than with any other place. Individuals carrying resident status under this policy shall certify under penalty for perjury that a specific address or location within the state of Alabama is their residence, that they intend to remain there indefinitely and that they have more substantial connections with the state of Alabama than with any other state.

EXPANDED DEFINITIONS OF “RESIDENT STUDENT”

- Is a full-time employee (not temporary) of the institution at which the student is registering or is the spouse of such an employee;
- Is able to verify full-time permanent employment within the state of Alabama and shall commence said employment not more than (90) days after initial registration with the institution, or is the spouse of such an employee;
- Is a member or the spouse of a member of the United States military on full-time active duty stationed in Alabama under orders for duties other than attending school;
- Is employed as a graduate assistant or fellow by the institution at which the student is registering; or (The University of Alabama has not adopted this provision)
- Is a resident of any county within fifty (50) miles of the campus of the institution at which the student is registering, and had been a resident of that county for at least one year immediately preceding the date of registration. “Resident” shall have the same meaning, as to the relevant county, which it has as to the state of Alabama in the definitions sections of this policy statement. (Lowndes and Noxubee counties in Mississippi are eligible)
