OUTSTANDING GRADUATE STUDENT AWARDS

Three committees reviewed nominations from the University's colleges and schools. From those students who won an award in their college or school, the committees selected the winners of the seven University-wide awards. Committees of faculty emeriti selected the winners of two awards—outstanding dissertation and outstanding thesis. The Graduate Council's Committee on Teaching, Research, and Service Awards chose the winners of the five teaching, research and service awards. The committees selected the following recipients of dissertation, thesis, teaching, research, and service awards for the University of Alabama.

Outstanding Doctoral Dissertation
John C. Mitcham
"Sea League of All the Britons: Race, Identity, and Imperial Defense, 1868 – 1914"
Department of History
College of Arts and Sciences
Dissertation Chairperson: Dr. John Beeler

Yanping Zhang
Department of Computer Science
College of Engineering
Dissertation Chairperson: Dr. Yang Xiao

Outstanding Master's Thesis
K. Lance Wilson
"The Origin and Development of the Tampa Embayment: Implications for the Tectonic Evolution of the Eastern Gulf of Mexico"
Department of Geological Sciences
College of Arts and Sciences
Thesis Chairperson: Dr. Delores Robinson

EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING BY A MASTER'S STUDENT
Allison Hiss
Department of Modern Languages and Classics
College of Arts and Sciences

EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING BY A DOCTORAL STUDENT
Jefferson Walker
Doctoral Program in Communication and Information Sciences
College of Communication and Information Sciences
EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH BY A MASTER'S STUDENT
Zachary Wahl-Alexander
Department of Kinesiology
College of Education

EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH BY A DOCTORAL STUDENT
Matthew Shannon
Department of Chemical and Biological Engineering
College of Engineering

OUTSTANDING SERVICE BY A GRADUATE STUDENT
Rosemary Clement
DNP Program
College of Nursing